SUMMARY

Since establishing Watts Media Productions in 2012, Trent Watts and his crews have filmed over 700 projects, ranging from national commercial campaigns to documentaries, branded content, music videos, and narratives. He has built a reputation as a Cinematographer who thinks like a Producer, often scheduling and budgeting shoots to maximize production values. He works regularly with film crews between 5-25 people, but is just as comfortable going back to his documentary roots. His list of owned equipment includes an ALEXA Mini, Zeiss CP2 lenses, wireless monitors, and HMI lighting. View his reel, work, and gear list at trentwatts.com
